Situated within the well-connected transit triangle, 141 West 36th Street offers tenants 24/7 access and a timeless, modern lobby that welcomes a diverse mix of industries—from apparel and accessories to technology and home and building design. Just a short walk from both Penn Station and Grand Central Terminal, this 22-story property features bright, loft-style spaces with expansive bay windows, exposed ceilings, eco-friendly lighting, updated restrooms, kitchen areas, and wood flooring. In 2019, the building introduced The B-Hive, an exclusive tenant amenity on the second floor. This inviting lounge includes soft seating, game tables, a pantry, and conference room space.
